

Indigenous Domestic & Family Violence Counselling Service

Our service provides specialised counselling to victims and children witness to domestic & family violence. We are based on Thursday Island and work throughout the Torres Strait Region.

This free service is available to Women, Children and Families

We offer

- Face-to-face counselling
- Telephone counselling
- Community awareness & education

We accept self referrals or referrals from related services.

All Women Sisters

Indigenous Domestic & Family Violence Counselling Service

Domestic & Family Violence occurs when one person in any type of relationship uses violent and/or abusive tactics to maintain power and control over the other person in a relationship. People who experience these acts of abuse or violence often feel fearful and unsafe.

Domestic violence can take many forms and you may be a victim of one; or many of these forms of abuse. These include:

- Physical Abuse
- Emotional Abuse
- Social Abuse
- Cultural Abuse
- Sexual Abuse
- Financial Abuse
- Spiritual Abuse

If you experience any of these you may be in a domestically violent relationship.

For our assistance call or visit us at

Mura Kosker Sorority
Phone 07 4069 1663
99 Douglas Street, Thursday Island
Torres Strait, Queensland

Find Us on Facebook

